How to Apply

By post

You can send your RTI application by post to the PIO of the relevant department by any of the two modes:

Registered Post AD: The AD card will act as proof of submission after it is returned to you by the postal department. In case the AD card does not come back with a proper stamp, signature, and date of receipt, follow up with the dispatching post office to get the AD card completed. Always keep a print out of the final delivery status with you.

Speed Post (A postal department service): Once the application is sent by Speed Post, track it and keep a print out of the delivery status carefully with you.

Online

You can also file your RTI applications to the Central Ministries/Departments and other Central Public Authorities mentioned in ONLINE RTI request form through the RTI Online Portal by simply clicking on <https://rtionline.gov.in/> . The word limit for filing applications online through this portal is 3000 words. However, for further reference, you can click here to read the user manual.

Web Portal to file RTI application online:
